

While waiting for Justice of the Peace Johnson, Dets Turner and Moore, the landlady, Mrs Roberts, and a Mrs Johnson saw Lee Oswald's picture on television and identified him as the O.H. Lee ~~Woodhouse~~ as the same person. When the search warrant arrived they searched Oswald's room and found an empty pistol holster, ~~maps~~ and numerous Communist books, pamphlets and handbills for the "Fair Play for Cuba. Also an undischarged discharge from the Marine Corps. All these articles were brought to the ~~Chicago~~ H&R bureau. When Det Senkel returned to the H&R office Capt Fritz had him take an affidavit from Mrs Oswald with an ~~interpreter~~ interpreter, Mr J.A. Brourantus and Mrs Ruth Paine translating the affidavit. Det Adamcik who understands some Russian also sat in on the taking of the affidavit.
